This 4-level villa is a haven of tranquillity on an almost untouched coastal section on the southeastern coast of Cyprus, between Ayia Napa and Cape Greco National Forest Park.

Enter the villa and you will be greeted by bright and sunny interiors with sliding door access to the pool area with its vast sunbathing deck, a furnished terrace and a BBQ corner. The magnetic infinity pool with Roman steps and waterfall glitters in the sun.

For maximum privacy, the five ensuite double bedrooms are separated by the ground floor level. On the lower level, which offers direct access to the terrace and garden, residents can enjoy a home within a home: two bedrooms, complete kitchen, living and dining area. You'll also find full laundry facilities, a guest toilet and even a home cinema, complete with leather recliners for movie nights, any night.

The main retreat area is on the upper floor, which is dedicated to three ensuite double bedrooms, while the roof terrace is nothing short of an elevated outdoor relaxation and entertainment area in the sun or under the stars, with jacuzzi, shower, BBQ, lounge area and bar.

It's easy to imagine that a group of friends or a multigenerational family could spend a summer holiday here, on the property and on its almost private cove, and never want to leave...
